Spring II 2010

Summer Camp

Highland Riding is pleased to announce that we will be offering three fun-filled summer camps. The dates for these camps are:
June 21-25- Island Paradise Camp

July 12-16- Aloha Horse Camp

August 16-20- Riding Stars Camp

Camps will run from 9AM-3PM, for children ages 6-14. Get your sign-ups in A.S.A.P, as these camps will fill!

Summer Lessons

Highland Riding will be offering summer lessons Monday through Saturday from June 28-August 14, except during camp weeks. Lessons will be open sign-up, and prepayment is required to schedule a time. Times and schedules will be posted in the office on April 26. Please see your instructor with any questions!

Highland Riding Logo Wear

Jackets, sweatshirts, and grooming totes featuring the Highland logo are available for order and purchase. Order forms and information can be found in the office.

Release Form Update

Highland Riding requests that each rider/parent of rider fills out our newly updated liability and medical release forms, so that we have your most current information. New releases are located in the office; please fill one out next time you come to the barn and give it to your instructor!

Home Grown Fava Beans!

Round up your fava bean recipes-home grown fava beans will be available soon for purchase at Highland Riding!

New Kids on the Block :)

Baby goats (kids) are expected to arrive on April 20. Be sure to stop in and say hello!

Star Says

Dear Star,

The last time I rode you in my lesson, my clothes were covered in brown hair after I groomed you. Why is all of your hair falling out?

Yours Truly,
Spring Rider

Dear Rider,

During the cold winter, I have a long, thick coat to keep me warm. Now that the weather is getting warmer, I am shedding so that I can have a short, sleek coat to keep me cool this summer. By spending a few extra minutes using your curry comb, you can help me finish shedding a little bit quicker!

Thanks for asking!
Yours Truly,
Star
